ABOUT OLI

A feature on international and national television screens for 17 years, there's hardly a country on Earth where you haven't been able to catch Oli on the small screen.

Whether driving the Cash Cab around the streets of Singapore, exploring UNESCO world heritage sites in Oman or meeting a small town's donkey mascot in Newfoundland & Labrador, Oli's quick wit and gift for story telling led to a number of award nominations and wins, as well as an 8 year stint on national television in the USA.

Oli is a relatively new Texas transplant who has most recently been gaining attention for his musings and observations on all things Texan as @ThatEnglishmanInTexas on Tik-Tok and Facebook. Racking up millions of views with his wry observations of America's most unique state

LIVE HOSTING

Oli's ability to improvise and adapt has long had him as a highly in demand Live Host - often being flown internationally to host globally broadcast award shows and pageants, simultaneously hosting the 60th anniversary of Adidas in 4 countries, launching Microsoft's newest software around South East Asia and opening the legendary Marina Bay Sands in Singapore to name a small fraction.
