GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Participation in the Junior Livestock Show is limited to Texas students only, who are members of a Texas 4-H club or FFA chapter within the state and who have continuously owned and personally fed and cared for their animals under direct supervision of a County Extension Agent (CEA) or an Agricultural Science Teacher (AST). To be eligible, exhibitors must be enrolled in and attending a public or private elementary or secondary school in Texas. They must be in the third grade or 8 years old, but not more than 19 years old, as of December 31 of the current school year. 4H members must be no more than 18 years old as of August 31st. All exhibitors must be a bona fide resident of the State of Texas. Academic ineligibility is not acceptable. NO PASS/NO PLAY will be enforced.
2. Eligibility and membership must be certified by the County Extension Agent or Agriculture Science Teacher at the time the entry fee is paid. All entries from each chapter or club must be signed and sent in at one time by the CEA or AST. Payment for all entries must be included in one check. Separate entries sent in individually by a club or chapter member will not be accepted and will be returned. ONLY CURRENT YEAR ENTRY FORMS WILL BE ACCEPTED. THE DEADLINE for all Upshur County entries is OCTOBER 1ST. THERE WILL BE NO LATE ENTRIES ACCEPTED for Market and Commercial animals. Out of county entries for Jr. Beef and Jr. Dairy will be accepted the day of show.
3. To be eligible for competition, whether single or in groups, the animals must be the bona fide property of the exhibitor and must have been owned by the exhibitor not less than 30 days prior to the opening of the show. Animals must be entered for competition in breeding classes, except as otherwise specified, and entered in the name of the owner. Registry certificates of ownership or bills of sale must be produced, if required, showing the exhibitor to be the owner.
4. All entries must be shown by the exhibitor in whose name the project is entered, except for double entries in the same class. If an approved event which conflicts with the show arises, the exhibitor and teacher/agent must submit a written request for a substitution in writing to the Livestock Board no later than 24 hours before the event. Substitute exhibitors shall not compete in showmanship classes.
5. Exhibitors may show as many breeding animals as desired.
6. At the time of arrival, registration papers (where applicable) must be presented upon request to the appropriate division chairman.
7. The show pavilion will have no commercial advertising without prior committee approval.

8. Stall space will be provided with 48 inches of tie space; if available, allowed per entry. Wood shavings will be used. No hay or straw bedding is allowed. Trimming chutes and grooming racks can be set up only in designated areas. Failure to comply will result in forfeiture of all awards.

9. All bovine left overnight must have a necktie and halter.

10. All goats must be stalled in the North Barn. No exceptions.

11. Once present on the Yamboree grounds, any unmanageable animals may be dismissed at the discretion of the Yamboree Livestock Chairman.

12. Any person using or having in their possession alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, or a prohibited weapon, will be removed from the premises. Any exhibitors having prohibited items in their possession will also not be eligible to show, sell or receive awards.

13. All animals must be removed from the fairgrounds by 6 p.m. on Saturday.

14. No parking within fence of Livestock grounds.

15. The decision of the awarding judges shall be final.

16. Herdsman Awards will be given in the cattle, goat, and swine divisions for Upshur County groups.

17. Showmanship Awards will be given to the first-place showmanship exhibitors in the following divisions. Competitors in the showmanship class must exhibit their own entered and shown animal.

Jr. Beef, Goats, and Swine Showmanship division classes will be:

- Junior Showmanship: 8 thru 11 years
- Intermediate Showmanship 12 thru 14 years
- Senior Showmanship: 15 years and over

Dairy, Meat Rabbit, and Steer Showmanship division classes will be:

- Junior Showmanship: 8 thru 13 years
- Senior Showmanship: 14 years and over

Broiler Showmanship

- 1 winner selected during show

18. All protests must be submitted in writing with a deposit of $100.00 in cash, which will be forfeited if the protest is not sustained.

19. The official Livestock Rules and Regulations may be changed only once per year at the first and second general meetings following the previous year's show.

20. The Show Committee reserves the right to make final decisions on ALL matters not herein provided for, and to make adjustments to matters necessary for the well-being of the show, sponsors and exhibitors.

21. LIABILITY OF EXHIBITORS: . Each exhibitor is responsible for the care, custody and control of his or her exhibit. The East Texas Yamboree Association, Yamboree Livestock Show, or any of its officers or directors will not be held responsible for any loss, damage, injury, or death by disease, theft, or from any other cause of any character to any property or person while same is at the Yamboree site, or any other place. The management hereby assumes no responsibility, either as bailee or otherwise, for any property being brought and kept upon said grounds.

22. CLAIM FOR INJURY: No claims for injury or damage to any person or property shall ever be asserted or any suit instituted or maintained against the East Texas Yamboree, its officers or agents, by or on behalf of any person, firm or corporation or their agents, representatives, servants or employees having license or privilege to exhibit at the Yamboree or who occupy any exhibit space thereon.

UPSHUR COUNTY MARKET AND COMMERCIAL ANIMAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. The Upshur County Market Steer, Market Swine, Broiler, Meat Pen Rabbits, Market Goats, Commercial Dairy, and Shop Projects shows and sales are limited to Upshur County 4-H and FFA members in good standing and also Junior FFA members in good standing who are in the 3rd through 8th grades under the supervision of an Agriculture Science Teacher or County Extension Agent. Exhibitors must also either live in Upshur County or be enrolled in a Upshur County school. All exhibitors must be in good academic standing.

2. No market or commercial animal shall be given non-approved feed additives, medicines or drugs, and no market or commercial animal shall be given approved medications, medicines, drugs or feed additives when the prescribed withdrawal time includes the date of sale. Violations of this provision will disqualify the animal and cause forfeiture of all premiums and sale monies. Exhibitors of market swine, broilers, commercial dairy heifers, goats, rabbits, and steers shall submit a sworn statement signed by the student and parent certifying that the animal has not been given non-approved drugs, medicines, or feed additives, and that the withdrawal time for approved drugs and feed additives has been followed.

This statement will also certify that the animal has not been unduly stressed in such a way that would adversely affect the quality of the carcass. Violations of this provision or the failure of inspection and approval of the sale animal carcass shall cause the forfeiture of all premium and sale monies. The exhibitor will be liable for the forfeiture of all monies.

The giving of oral or injected diuretics or growth stimulants not approved for market animals constitutes unethical fitting. The Yamboree Livestock Committee and veterinarian reserve the right to collect urine or blood samples from any market animal for laboratory analysis. Any exhibitor having an animal which produces a sample having a quantity of diuretic or unapproved substance of any kind will forfeit all rights and privileges to exhibit livestock at the East Texas Yamboree. All premiums and sale proceeds will be withheld until tests are completed. Expense of testing will be paid by the exhibitor, and failure of such testing shall cause the forfeiture of all premiums and sale monies.

The showing of unethically fitted livestock is prohibited. Unethical fitting shall be deemed to mean any physical or physiological attempts to alter the natural conformation, musculature, or weight of an animal by use of injections, inflation, ingested material or by severe color alteration not conducive to the continued health of market animals or the marketability of the animal's carcass. Animals, in the opinion of the judge, a veterinarian, or the Yamboree Livestock Committee, showing signs of having been unethically fitted will be disqualified.

3. Exhibitors must own and possess their animals at the beginning of and throughout the feeding period and must feed, care for, and exhibit their entered animals without any aid or assistance during the entire feeding period except from the Agriculture Science Teacher, County Extension Agent, parent(s), club manager, or other junior exhibitor. Said feeding, care, and training must occur within Upshur County or within the exhibitor's school district in an adjoining county.

Feeding periods will be:

Steers	Validation date until show date
Commercial Dairy Heifers	Validation date until show date
Market Swine	August 1 until show date
Broilers	Date of receipt until show date
Meat Goats	Validation date until show date
Rabbits	30 days until show date

4. The Yamboree Livestock Show only guarantees and is responsible for the sale of up to 15 steers, 30 swine, 25 broilers, 25 rabbits, 25 meat goats, and 10 dairy heifers. In the event that there is available sale lots the Livestock Committee has the discretion to fill all, some or none of those sale lots.

5. Agriculture Science Teachers/County Extension Agent must submit summary sheet of each species entered with entries. Entries and summary sheet are due by October 1st.
NO LATE ENTRIES.

6. All exhibitors must be present for sale picture and sale order.

7. Only one market animal will be eligible for sale per exhibitor. The Grand and Reserve Champion market and commercial animals must sell, if eligible. Only one animal may be sold per exhibitor.

8. Exhibitors must sell the first animal picked in the sale order in each species.

9. In the event an exhibitor has multiple champions, multiple qualifying sale animals, the exhibitor must submit in writing the show/sale chairman by 5:00 p.m. Friday which animal will be sold. In the event an exhibitor has multiple champions, the highest placing must sale. (Example: Grand Champion Swine and Reserve Champion Broiler, Grand Champion Swine must sale) The first alternate will move up into the sale order but will not replace a Champion or Reserve Champion Spot.

10. If an approved event conflicts with a show for an exhibitor, a written request for a substitution must be submitted to the Livestock Board no later than 24 hours before the event. The request must be signed by the student and his or her Agriculture Science Teacher or County Extension Agent.

11. It will be the exhibitor's responsibility to remove foreign substances from animal before the sale.

12. The Yamboree Livestock Show is not responsible for the buy back or floor price sale of any commercial dairy heifer or other market animal, regardless of whether they make the sale. All sale animals are terminal. When a buyer selects "Buy Back/Resale" this animal becomes the property of the floor buyer. When a buyer selects "Keep" the animal becomes property of the buyer. At no point will the exhibitor receive their animal back.

13. All market and commercial dairy animals become the property of the buyer at the time of sale. Exhibitors are responsible for their sold animal until delivered locally at the direction of the buyer. No animal that has previously sold in a premium sale is eligible to sell in the East Texas Yamboree. Violation of this provision will result in forfeiture of all monies.

14. If any Exhibitor, or immediate family member of an exhibitor, confronts or is publicly out spoken in a negative manner towards any buyer, then the exhibitor will forfeit all sales proceeds, and the violating exhibitor or member of the aforementioned exhibitor family, as the case may be, will be banned from showing in the Yamboree Livestock Show for a period of time as may be determined by a majority vote of the livestock committee present at any subsequent regular or special meeting.

15 Thank you letters must be received by the supervisor, for the supervisor to verify to the Yamboree Association.

16. For add-ons to be recorded, collected, and paid to exhibitor by the East Texas Yamboree Association, they must be a minimum of $25.

17. There will be a five percent commission charge on all premium sale animals and add-ons.

18. Checks will not be issued until all buyer funds are collected. Checks will be given only to County Extension Agents and Agriculture Science Teachers for distribution to exhibitors.

19. The Show Committee reserves the right to make final decisions on ALL matters not herein provided for, and to make adjustments to matters necessary for the well-being of the show, sponsors and exhibitors.

20. Animals must remain at the livestock grounds until 5pm of their show day. At that time they will be dismissed by the Livestock Chairman or Species Chairman. This rule excludes broilers and rabbits.

21. All sale animals must remain at the livestock grounds until dismissed by the livestock chairman or Species Chairman.
